

Safe in the South

Safe in the South is an International Accredited Safe Community.

Safe in the South is a group of organisations committed to promoting safety in Southland.

We want to create a community, where people can go about their daily activities in an environment without fear, risk of harm or injury.

The Safe Community Model aims to:

- Facilitate exchange of information, skills, experience, materials, opportunities for collaboration
- Reduce duplication of efforts through collaboration and pooling of resources.
- Bring together a diverse range of people and organisations. Diversity helps strengthen safety campaigns by broadening understanding of an issue and appealing to a wider target audience.
- Increase action by building local partnerships and collaborative relationships.

Vision:

Inclusive communities where people thrive and are empowered to be well and safe.

Mission:

Sustainable partnerships which harness knowledge, networks and resources to enable whanau and community resilience.

Governance Group:

The Safe in the South Governance group consists of representatives from collaborating organisations

Southland District Council

Invercargill City Council

Gore District Council

Accident Compensation Corporation (ACC)

NZ Police

Fire and Emergency New Zealand

Oranga Tamariki

Chamber of Commerce

Chair: Mayor Gary Tong – Southland District Council

Safe in the South Steering Group is a group with flexible membership. A wide network of organisation is informed about issues and upcoming projects via the newsletter and email correspondence and invited to participate. This way organisations across Southland are informed and able to participate if they find that it is of relevance for their respective organisations.
